Integrating 21st Century Technology into the World Language Classroom

June 21, 22, and 23, 2011

- Learn how to:
 - Use free web 2.0 tools to engage students in real-world communication such as Voice Thread, Google Voice, Voki, Animoto.
 - Find and use music to actively engage students in learning.
 - Use and download videos even if your district blocks YouTube!
 - Set up a classroom wiki on pbworks.com.
- Create lessons for your students using the technology you learn.
- “Handouts” will be electronic and all work will be hands-on in a computer lab so bring your own USB flash drive to save everything.
- Technology applies to both Mac and PC.

Targeted Audience: All teachers and interns of World Languages and English as a Second Language

Dates: June 21, 22, and 23, 2010

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (Participants will make their own arrangements for lunch from 12:00 – 1:00.)

of Participants: Minimum 8, Maximum 20. Applications with payment will be processed immediately until the maximum is reached. If the minimum is not reached by June 10, the class will be canceled and payment will be returned.

Location: Berkeley Language Center, Computer Lab B-3, Dwinelle Hall, University of California, Berkeley.

Applications: Attached or available at <http://blc.berkeley.edu>. Due June 10.

Cost: $150 per participant. Payment must be received by June 10. (See application for details.) 20% discount if you attended an EBFLP program in 2009-10, 2010-11, or are a credential candidate.

Because our programs are authorized by the State and Federal Government as part of California’s effort to ensure that all schools are NCLB compliant, you may wish to use funds from Title I (Disadvantaged Learners), Title II - Part A (Professional Development), or Title III (English Learners).
