Let's Discuss the French Presidential Election: First Round Results

Monday, April 11 | 2:10-3pm | 3335 Dwinelle

Claire Tourmen and the Students of French 137

This timely discussion will inform the general audience of the first-round French presidential election results and the impacts of the Ukraine crisis on the election while taking into consideration global politics.

Persian Culture through Film: Fireworks Wednesday

Tuesday, April 12 | 5-7:30pm | B-4 Dwinelle (RSVP Required)

Linguaphile: Niki Borghei and Hitomi Torng

Learn about Persian culture through the film Fireworks Wednesday followed by a brief presentation on the Persian holidays Chaharshanbe Suri and Nowruz with some traditional Persian snacks.

Living a Hellenistic Life: Clues from Papyri and Cuneiform Tablets

Wednesday, April 13 | 4:30-5:30pm | via Zoom (RSVP Required)

Presenters: Sheila Liu, Roxana Wang, Will Sieving, Emma Kim; Sponsors: Dr. Laurie Pearce, Dr. Andrew Hogan

Join us to see how the worlds' oldest forms of records—papyri and cuneiform tablets—offer material for the reconstruction of the life, death, and social connections of the peoples living on the frontiers of Hellenistic cultural blending.

Memory and Identity: A Poetry Workshop

Thursday, April 14 | 6-8pm | B-4 Dwinelle (RSVP Required)

Comp Lit Undergraduate Journal; featuring Alejandro Jimenez

This poetry workshop featuring the 2021 National Mexican Poetry Slam Champion Alejandro Jimenez honors multicultural and multiethnic backgrounds through the power of prose.

Making Sense of Our World through Languages

Friday, April 15 | 11-12pm | B-4 Dwinelle

Presenters: Rosa Beschi, Zoe Chyatte, Kathia González, Chloe Loera, William Roddy, Selina Yang, Helen Zhu

In this panel, presenters will highlight applied language studies research projects, through classroom work as well as through their participation in the Berkeley Language Center's URAP program.

The Basics of ASL

Friday, April 15 | 1-2pm | B-4 Dwinelle or via Zoom

ASL@Berkeley: Erin Chang, Brigid Shields, and Jacqueline Dominguez Davalos

We will teach participants the alphabet, animal signs, how to introduce yourself, and how to ask for someone's name. We will also perform the song "We Don't Talk About Bruno" from Encanto in ASL.

Words in Action

Friday, April 15 | 3-7pm | Durham Studio Theater - Dwinelle
